

Sierra Madreans Honored By Arcadia Realty Board

R. ROBERT EVANS, publisher, accepts a Certificate of Appreciation on behalf of the Sierra Madre News. The certificate was awarded the paper by the California State Real Estate Association, in recognition of extraordinary services rendered. Bob Johnson, president of the Arcadia Board of Realtors, presented the Certificate on behalf of the State organization at a banquet and installation of their officers in Arcadia Wednesday evening, November 11. John H. Curtis, of Sierra Madre Real Estate, also shared in the award and was presented a "Re-Declaration of Independence" award, signed by officials and dignitaries of the California Real Estate Association. Left to right, Bob Johnson, R. Robert Evans and John H. Curtis.

Two Sierra Madreans were singly honored at the Past Presidents dinner of the Arcadia Board of Realtors on November 11, at an Arcadia restaurant.

R. Robert Evans, Editor and Publisher of the Sierra Madre News was presented a special certificate of commendation from the California Real Estate Association, by Robert Johnson, president of the Arcadia Board, for the strong editorial stand taken by the News for a "Yes" vote on Proposition 14 at the recent election.

The other Sierra Madrean honored was John H. Curtis, local Realtor and member of the Arcadia Board, for his part in the vigorous editorial campaign. John Curtis, author of the many stirring editorials that attracted state-wide attention in the campaign for a "Yes" vote on 14, was given a standing ovation by the Realty Board and presented a copy of the Re-Declaration of Independence, published as a special edition of the Sierra Madre News, of which Curtis is the author, signed by California Real Estate Association officials.

Upon the launching of the campaign to obtain 468,000 signatures needed to qualify the Proposition 14 initiative, Curtis was asked to write his first editorial. This he did, which was printed by the Sierra Madre News on December 5, last year under the heading of The Repeal of the Rumford Act. This editorial strongly challenged the Rumford Act and bluntly stated that it should never be called a "Fair" Housing Act, but should in fact be referred to as the Rumford "Forced" Housing Act.

This description of the Act was used throughout the long and bitter struggle that followed, in which the nearly two million "Yes" vote plurality for Proposition 14 overwhelmingly showed that the people of California not only wanted no part of forced housing but wanted and demanded the return to them of the property rights taken from them by the Rumford Act.

This editorial sounded the keynote of the political struggle that made history. The California Real Estate Magazine reprinted the editorial in their December issue. The editorial was reprinted by many newspapers and in leaflet form

Art Show Continues At Pas. Federal

Because of great public response to the one-man exhibit of paintings by Paul Fairbanks at its East Pasadena office in Foothill-Rosemead Shopping Center, Pasadena Federal Savings and Loan Association announces that the showing will be continued through the month of November. It had originally been scheduled to close tomorrow.

However, Earl Newkirk, manager of Pasadena Federal's East Pasadena office, reports that the Association is granting numerous requests to keep the paintings on view for the additional ten days.

The nine landscapes and seascapes are attracting enthusiastic comment for their dramatic use of color in reproducing the Western scene in the gamut of moods and seasons. Mr. Fairbanks has won wide recognition for the depth and perspective of his paintings. Those on display at Pasadena Federal Savings are chosen from his most recent works in oil, and are rendered variously on canvas, linen and masonite to achieve the exact tone quality desired.

Open to the public at no charge, the exhibit can be seen during Pasadena Federal's business hours, 9:30 to 4 Monday through Thursday, and from 9:30 until 6 on Fridays. The office will be closed Thanksgiving Day.

I have long felt that when a young man becomes of age to the point that he can carry a gun and fight for his country, which is 18 years, he likewise should be eligible to cast his ballot.

The same feeling prevails about the prediction and tabulation of election returns while half of the polls are open. . . If it is necessary to keep the bars and liquor houses closed until the polls are closed, then by the same token the count should be kept closed until the last ballot is cast. . . many rats desert a sinking ship, and this also holds true in elections.

I was quite amused at television the other night when the commercial showed a new American Doll that was being offered to the public for the Christmas Season buying. . . You wind it up and it empties its pockets. . . Having just received, and paid half of my latest tax bill, I could not help but compare the two. . . Wind up your tax-giving agencies and they will soon empty your pockets. . . and how.

Speaking about those taxes. . . We have had over 132 phone calls from irate property owners. . . and we just cannot understand why. All of you were told, just what was going to happen. . . you were told this in late July, reminded in full on September 10, but at a meeting to do something about it, only 14 people appeared. . . no interest then, but WOW, when the dollar figures appear on the tax bill and the date of first payment is December 10, the story is entirely different.

Nothing can be done at this time, all you can do is gear yourself for the next budget hearing that will start as early as May and June. Of course, you have propositions A, B, C, and the State 1, 2, 3 to contend with now. They will up the tax bill for the coming years, but that is what we wanted, so we will have to pay the fiddler for the dance.

I have never thought of this before, but Los Angeles is represented by two teams. . . the Dodgers and the Angels. . . Now with the freeways and traffic what it is. . . you're either one or the other.

Attending a recent dinner meeting, I was very interested in a discussion, across the table, of two business

Friends of Library Rent Paintings

Six additional paintings have been added to the Print Rental collection at our local library. These pictures, in oil and watercolor, represent contemporary artists and supplement the existing works by the Old Masters.

They are now on display in the library and the public is invited to view them prior to circulation for rent in mid-November. Since the innovation of the collection just one year ago, its popularity is evidenced by the demand.

The Friends of the Library are adding steadily to this fine collection and urge you to "check out" a print on your library card.

MEET MONROVIA

by GWEN

Seven coeds from Pasadena City College have been selected for the Homecoming Court, one of whom will be chosen Queen to reign over the Homecoming Football Game with Glendale and the Ball, both to be held on November 20. Now a Freshman at PCC, Dawn is involved in a great many activities on campus such as the Social and Publicity Commissions, serving as Historian for the Freshman Class and she is also on the Board of the Associated Women's Student Body, which is limited to 25 members. Best wishes to this talented and lovely girl.

Just returned from their annual fishing trip to Northern California are Lee Gaines, Ralph Thorsen and Loren (Red) Green. Motor-ing up by way of Bishop in the High Sierras, up to Lake Tahoe and Truckee, then over to the Sacramento River to fish at Balls Ferry near Redding, then up to the Klamath River. The fishing was terrible but the reunion with other Monrovia Fishermen, Harry Crunk, Kenny Kentner, John Zeller and Larry Hester made up for the scarcity of fish. On their return home they again tried their luck at Balls Ferry and did catch some nice salmon and so had some results to show their wives — but in spite of the disappointment in the fishing they had such a great time they are already, according to Lee, Planning next year's trip!

The Pleiades club members and husbands recently attended the Melodyland Theatre for the presentation of "Milk and Honey." The group chartered a bus and thoroughly enjoyed a fun evening. Those attending were the Bruce Duncans, Frank Elliotts, Lyle Faiths, William Faiths, Wayne Fergusons, Ed Fricks, Ken Fullers, George Hutchins, Roy Kropkes, Harold McCallis, Mike Mezas, Chuck Ochoas, Wayne Richmonds, Dick Smith, Bob Teegardens, Robert Tomlinsons, John Wol-ever, Ed Winbergs, Jay Wynes, Hugh Yates, Mrs. Wally Fandorf, Mrs. Jack Hinchman, Mrs. Ruth Shannon and Mrs. Ellen Werner.

Rita Murphy, a senior at M.D., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Murphy, has been selected by the Honor Division of the University of Santa Clara to attend a special interview at the Biltmore Hotel. This University contacts and interviews between 20 and 25 top students in the U.S. to attend and it is a great honor for Rita, but not surprising as she was one of the top two per cent of students in the nation as tested by the National Merit Association. WHAT SHADE IS YOUR SKIN?

Continuing our talk about skin and make-up from last issue.

RUDDY — Tone down rosy cheeks and high color with rachel or light brunet make-up.

BRUNETTE — Natural brunette skin calls for rachel or rose-beige foundation.

ROSE BRUNETTE — High color, translucent skin should use brunet foundation and avoid pink notes.

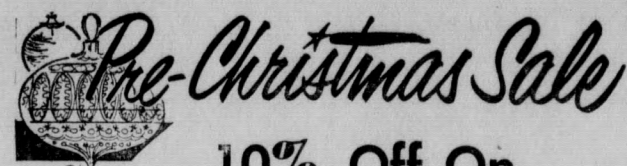

OLIVE — Skin may have golden undertones — bring these out with brunet alone. If fallow, use dark rose beige.

(This concludes make-up hints. Next week we will talk about lip and cheek color.)

Meanwhile if you feel your problem is too tough just turn it over to a good facialist. And to make sure your hair is always complementing your total appearance turn that over to PETITE BEAUTY SALON, 185 West Sierra Madre Blvd. Call ELgin 5-8041 for an appointment.

Conquer DIABETES with REGULAR CHECK-UPS

DANGER SIGNALS . . .

DIABETES sends out definite danger signals — increase in thirst, hunger and urination; loss of weight; itching, easy tiring; changes of vision and slow healing of cuts and scratches. Fortunately, diabetes can be detected quickly and with little effort. Your family pharmacist will be happy to give you reliable information on diabetes and how it can be detected.

Rudolph R. Hartman, PhG., FACPh, proudly announces that Hartman Pharmacy in Sierra Madre will sponsor another 5 minute broadcast on current health problems. This broadcast will be during National Diabetes Week (November 15-22) and will be a conversation between announcer John Batchelder of ABC and Dr. Thomas P. Sharkey, MD, president of the American Diabetes Association. Their topic will be "The Problem of Diabetes." Listen to KMAX-FM (107.1mc) The Voice of San Gabriel Valley in Sierra Madre on

MARTINS RETURN

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Martin of 115 S. Sunnyside recently returned from a wonderful 22-day trip. They visited first with Mr. Martin's brother, Dr. John Martin and his family in Clarinda, Iowa. Another highlight of their trip was a five-day stay in Keithsburg, Illinois, where they took part in the 1919 High School Class Reunion.

News of Girl Scout Troop 529

When Girl Scout Troop 529 met Tuesday, November 17, they had as their guest Mrs. Betty La Boyteaux, R.N., of Pasadena, assisting with the instruction for their health aid badge.

Refreshments for this meeting were served by Miss Robin Simpson.

Mrs. Maybelle Barker was a welcome guest the previous week. The girls found her report on early Sierra Madre most interesting. The troop theme of study at present being, "Learning More About Our Community."

The girls are looking forward to having Miss Chris Hawley, senior Scout of Sea Nymph Mariners troop in attendance next week. Miss Hawley will assist with a knot-tying lesson, team scouting fun plus learning skills.

As service to others, part of the girls from this troop assisted Mrs. Young prepare envelopes for United Crusade. A second service project was recently completed by the remainder of the troop. These girls made gay candy tray favors for the Pacific State Hospital for the Retired.

This troop of Juniors resumed their meetings the first week in October under the leadership of Mrs. Jo Ann Anderson.

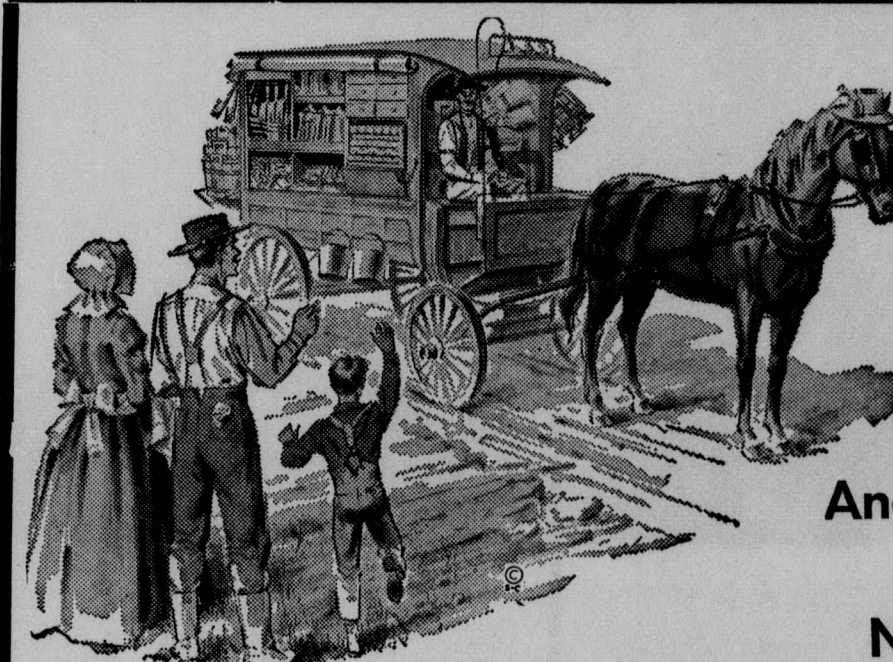

Elected patrol leaders within the troop are the Misses Virginia Maes, Debra Wagner, Carol Hathaway, Nancy Rudolph, Dominique Paschall and Troop Scribe, Parris Shepherd.

Accreditation

tion by the five member commission will take place at the school on April 26-27-28. The formal visitation takes place under the auspices of the Western Catholic Educational Association which is an affiliate of WASC.

"The purpose," according to Brother S. Martin, FSC, principal, "is to study the self-evaluation by Las Salle High School in terms of its philosophy, purpose, and academic accomplishments."

The work of the faculty and students is to put into written form these items. The first deadline for these forms is December 1.

Storm Drain 1958 Bonds Go On the Block For Funds

Security First National Bank has submitted a high bid for purchase of a $10 million block of 1958 storm drain bonds, Supervisor Frank G. Bonelli said today.

The firm filed an offer to the Board of Supervisors to purchase the bonds at an interest rate of 3.17 per cent. A total of six bids were submitted.

Bonelli, who is chairman of the board's Flood Control

Committee, said the block represents the twelfth sale of these bonds with $155 million having been purchased in previous offerings.

The 1958 program calls for construction of 184 key projects to be financed from the $225 million bond issue. Voters approved the program in November, 1958, and construction of the first drain got underway the following summer.

About 85 per cent of the regular projects have been completed or are currently under construction, Bonelli said.

When completed, the program will add nearly 500 miles of major drainage facilities to the area's vast flood control network.

Bonelli said the projects are designed by the cities where they are to be located and by County Engineer John A. Lambie for unincorporated territory.

The drainage program will be supplemented by the $275 million bond issue which won approval by the electorate at the November 3 general election, the supervisor added.

Dog Training Dates Changed

Due to the bad weather the Santa Anita Dog Training Group has had to change its obedience training classes schedules both in Arcadia County Park and in West Covina. These classes are not just for the problem dog as any dog needs and deserves an education. This course covers not only basic training, but also takes care of problems such as barking, digging, chewing, house - breaking, etc.

Any dog five months on up may be enrolled. The new classes in Arcadia County Park will start on the following dates: Saturday afternoon, November 21, at 2 p.m., and Monday evening, November 23, at 8 p.m. The class in West Covina will start on Tuesday evening, November 24, at 7 p.m.

March of Dimes Kickoff Planning Set In Motion

Approximately 30 civic and business leaders from 13 cities including Glendale, Pasadena, Alhambra, South Pasadena, Altadena, Temple City, San Gabriel, Monrovia, Arcadia, La Crescenta, La Canada, San Marino, and Sierra Madre, will attend a March of Dimes pre-campaign briefing session at the Huntington Sheraton Hotel, Pasadena, Monday, November 16.

The dinner meeting will feature an address by Dr. Oliver Nichols, director of the March of Dimes Birth Defects Treatment Center at Orthopaedic Hospital. He will detail the accomplishments of the "Team Approach" method established by the health agency. Nichols will point out, according to advance word, the outstanding work performed for the child with spina bifida (open spin). He has directed the care of 60 of these catastrophic cases within the past year with much success. Heretofore, victims of this birth defect were considered hopeless cases and many hospitals still turn them away. County March of Dimes officials will brief the community leaders for the 1965 fund-raising drive which opens in January.

The health agency is engaged in a full-scale concentration on birth defects, one of the major health problems of the nation. An added feature to the evening will be the initial area showing of a new educational film on birth defects entitled "Stranger to the World," narrated by Barry Sullivan, which is now in national release.

Tina Tidwell, 3, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mareld F. Tidwell, La Mirada, is seen in the film and will take a "bow" at the meeting. Tina is a spina bifida victim now on the road to recovery. She also took a role in a film featuring top Hollywood stars which will be shown throughout the nation on television for the March of Dimes campaign next January. The child is taking an active part in alerting the public of the battle against birth defects.

Christmas Parade Plans Revealed

More than 125 motion picture and television stars have agreed to ride in the Santa Claus Lane Parade of Stars in Hollywood on Wednesday evening, November 25.

These personalities cover the whole range of the entertainment field from the serious dramatic actors, the western heroes and the lively comedians. They include the young like Jay North and Jon Provost, the older like Francis X. Bushman and Wallace Ford. Steve Allen, Honorary Mayor of Hollywood will occupy a prominent place, and Dick Van Dyke will be there.

The young people will see their favorites like Bob Denver and Paul Peterson and Gloria Winters. Weary fathers who hold their kids will be perked up with the appearance of Patrice Wymore, Marie McDonald, June Lockhart, Virginia Mayo and other attractive entertainers.

Western fans will be looking for Dale Robertson, Dennis Weaver and many others. Joe E. Brown, who was in the original parade in 1932, will be back again this year. Vic Morrow will be there from "Combat," and Kathy Nolan will represent "Broadside." Lawrence Welk will make another of his appearances as will David Brien, Morey Amsterdam, Jack Bailey, Art Baker, Bill Dana, Frank Faylen, Connie Hines, Mahalia Jackson, Marvin Miller, Michael O'Shea, Woody Strode, Keenan Wynn and other representatives who come from the whole spectrum of the entertainment industry.

Meet the most important person in our lives: a customer. As an investor-owned, business managed company, all Southern California Edison plans and all Edison people have one big objective: customer satisfaction.

We move ahead only as we serve and please our customers. And most of our customers are also owners of the electric utility industry.

It's a fact! If you have a bank account, carry insurance, belong to a "fund" or any organization with money to manage, you are probably an indirect owner. And if you have invested part of your savings in companies such as Southern California Edison, then you are a direct owner.

No wonder Edison service is perpetually polished and perfected. The boss is all around us!

Nearly everyone has an important stake in the electric utility industry

The ownership of America's electric utility industry is a picture of power widely owned and well-managed for the benefit of almost everyone. The investor-owned electric utilities are constantly protecting the interests of their customers (who are also their owners) by increasing efficiencies to make electricity one of today's biggest bargains.

Sierra Madreans Honored by Realty Board

property rights and have again under clear skies of freedom, editorials which were given state-wide publicity. One such editorial resulted in the printing of the now famous miniature "YES ON 14" cards, which reprinted the very headlines of the editorial. These "Yes" cards proved most effective in countering confusion and guiding voters to the right decision. Well over a million of the cards were printed — cards which could easily be passed on and on to voters at large.

Then came to Re-Declaration of Independence which tens of thousands signed, all pledging themselves to work for and vote for "Yes" on Proposition 14. The ministerial stand against Proposition 14 was challenged by Curtis who said, "The strange and baffling interpretation of Godliness by these ministers appears to be that it is a sin to love freedom."

Curtis not only wrote many editorials but led the campaign for a unanimous vote by the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors endorsing Proposition 14 and even carried his fight for Proposition 14 to the voters through his own advertising in the Sierra Madre News through six friends are perfect.

four-column, ten inch ads. After the votes were counted and a tremendous victory for Proposition 14 was achieved, Curtis was asked to sum it up in a few words and replied, "The people of this nation love their freedom. Once they were alerted with the truth of the dangers facing them they arose in overwhelming numbers to protect the very fundamental principles of freedom upon which the nation was founded."

The victory on Proposition 14 in effect repealed the Rumford Forced Housing Act and restores the right to property owners to decide wholly and completely on their own to whom they will sell, rent or lease residential property. The "Yes" victory nullifies the right of any one to force their will upon the people by the power of state police.

Throughout California Proposition 14 carried by nearly two to one. In Sierra Madre the margin of "Yes" victory was approximately three to one.

Delta Gammas Sponsor Braille Club Of Pasadena As Philanthropy Project

Delta Gammas have been pursuing their National project of Aid to the Blind for many years in many ways. The Pasadena Alumnae of Delta Gamma provide assistance to the Nursery School for Visually Handicapped Children in Los Angeles and has as its local philanthropy, the Braille Club of Pasadena.

With Mrs. C. Harris Flannery in charge, the chapter is currently planning its annual Christmas dinner for the Braille Club to be held on Wednesday, December 2.

A traditional turkey dinner complete with all the trimmings will be served. Even the "seeing eye" dogs will be remembered in the true holiday spirit with dog dis-cuit stockings. Each guest will return to his or her home with an individually wrapped gift delicacy as a remembrance of the festive occasion.

Emphasizing the sense of "smell and touch" that these blind Braille Club members can "see," Delta Gammas are busy fashioning center pieces of fragrant greenery accented with various shaped Christmas ornaments. The Bell Telephone Chorus, as in previous years, will provide entertainment for the day.

Delta Gammas assist in many ways during the year . . . collecting during the White Cane Drive, making donations of many kinds and sending volunteer help for the sewing classes held weekly. Culminating these sewing sessions is a June fashion show of garments made and modeled by Braille Club members. Delta Gamma again comes to help — this time in the form of serving dessert to these deserving men and women.

Through individual interest and participation Pasadena Delta Gammas are able to decide which phase of help to the blind each alumnae desires. This is a part of the fraternity program . . . "Design for Giving."

SPORTS AS

Hank Ives SEES IT

BULLDOGS TO WIN TURKEY TUSSELE

FRIDAY NIGHT'S Rose Bowl tussle between the Pasadena High Bulldogs and the Mustangs of John Muir has all the indications of a replica of last year's Foothill League donnybrook. Just one small change. Old Hank Ives looks for Pasadena to reverse their 14-13 loss of 1963.

The unbeaten, once-tied Bulldogs have been a tough aggressive group featuring teamwork, a hard-nose defense, and a fine extra-point kicker in Ed Hawkins. It could be the latter's talented toe that provides the margin of victory.

Muir has speed to burn and the only blot on their record is a tie with Pacific and a loss to Redlands, both ranked high in the CIF standings. It should be a corker.

ISN'T THE NAME "Turkey-Tussle" a misnomer? Originally the game was played on Thanksgiving Day between PCC and John Muir Jr. College. The name had some meaning then. It was a natural. The crowds were big and family style. Pasadena had a ball taking their kids to the daytime grid fray with all of the "hometown" atmosphere. Kickoff was often at noon so that the family could be home in plenty of time for mom's turkey feast with all the trimmings.

Then John Muir became a high school. Because of the possible CIF playoff slate that begins the day after Thanksgiving, the current series has been moved forward. Personally I miss the holiday action. The Muir-PHS contest is usually a dandy, but let's not call it the "Turkey-Tussle" anymore. That's strictly a misnomer.

UNFORTUNATELY the schedule-makers saw fit to slate the PCC-Glendale battle the same night at Horrell Field. That one is on Channel 13. So what are you going to do?

THE JR. ROSE BOWL Board of Management may have a problem on their hands when the meet Sunday morning at the Huntington Hotel. Cameron's Aggies look like a "shoo-in" for the Eastern bid. However, picking the Western host may be something else. Long Beach is riding high again and the upstart Harbor Seahawks have already completed an unbeaten season.

There are folks who think the Vikings are a super team in a super conference and therefore deserve the bid. There are others who claim they would rather see "fresh" talent in the JRB and Harbor has never played before. LB made the JRB scene in 1950 and again in 1960 winning both times. OF COURSE, Cerritos may make it easy for the selection committee by upsetting Long Beach Saturday night. It could happen. The Falcons have the fire power but they would have to apply the brakes to a fantastic scooter by the name of Marvin Motley, who rang up no less than 300 yards last week against a good El Camino eleven.

BE IT HARBOR OR LONG BEACH, look for a great contest in the Rose Bowl on December 12.

PICKING TIME . . . OLD HANKUS had a good week tabbing 15 winners, including all three of his "limb crawlers," Stanford, Texas Tech and the Bears by 10 points, right on the button. Season mark, 114-58-7.

PASADENA 14, Muir 13 . . . GLENDALE 20, PCC 14 with the Lancers giving it all they have . . .

OLD HANKUS picked USC to oppose Michigan in the Rose Bowl on January 1, way back in September. He'll stick to his guns. USC over UCLA, 24-14 and MICHIGAN to nip Ohio State 17-14.

CALIFORNIA to outscore Stanford in the "Big Game" in Strawberry Canyon. Don't let that Utah debacle fool you . . . OREGON to knock Oregon State out of the race with a 21-15 victory . . . WASHINGTON by three TDs over rival Wash. St.

PURDUE should bounce back with a vengeance to down cross state Indiana . . . MINNESOTA over Wisconsin . . . NORTH CAROLINA over Duke . . . FLORIDA to nip Florida State . . .

YALE over Harvard . . . ILLINOIS by one TD over Mich. State . . . NOTRE DAME not about to be upset by Iowa . . .

girl from Monrovia also presented with the Merit Certificate in this test. Jim and Kay Murphy are also the parents of James, now attending the University of San Francisco and along with his very full curriculum he is chairman for Young Americans for Freedom on Campus — and he is only a freshman. The predictions are favorable that this young man will have a very successful future in any field of endeavor in which he participates.

I tell you it is pretty dangerous to do anything around our house that is the least bit out of the ordinary, because suddenly the rest of the family acts as if you invented the deed and have sole rights to its use.

The other day my husband came in and announced, as if I had been remiss in my duty, that "I" had a gopher. Now I don't quite know what made him decide that the gopher was mine, but he obviously thought that I should be doing something about it inasmuch as "my" gopher was eating "his" plants. Well, I caught my little friend but I protested a bit. Old Ed said, "Why, you know I'm not home at the time the gophers are working, how could I be expected to catch it?" Well, that is a pretty logical conclusion and I bought it, but not without a struggle. I got so mad at myself . . . All my life I have wanted to think of myself as a lovely southern belle type of person that people would just clammer to help, and I ask you, how can you be dainty with a spade and a gopher trap in your hands? . . . "Never, never start" is my advice, or suddenly they are YOUR gophers!

Almost any excuse is good enough to take a trip, and Ben and Virginia Rogers used the recent San Francisco dental convention as an excuse to get up to the Bay. They drove Dr. and Mrs. Ralph M. Rogers up to attend the convention. They all stayed at the Villa Roma which is down by Fisherman's Wharf and from all I can learn is a really nice motor hotel.

They went up last Sunday and returned Thursday night and while they were there they drove over to Yuba City and Paradise to surprise the Robert Henders (former neighbors in Pasadena Glen). Virginia tells me that they have started a wonderful trailer park up there and that the countryside is still beautiful and unsullied by too many people. A good place to stay if you chance to go that way.

Nancy and Gene Rode of Fairpoint had one of their athletic afternoons last Saturday. They invited the "gang" for shuffleboard and horseshoes, and followed up the active sports with a little music provided by a group of local musicians, fondly known as the "Madcaps," and a buffet dinner. In the party were Don and Ethel Hays, Phyl and Charlie Harrison, Dom and Pat Giangregorio, Alan and Betty Stearns, Bill and Pat Olson, Bill and Mary Taylor, Charles and Pat Eldson, Matt and Jeanne Slavin, Forrest and Jean Paxson, Bud and Betty Knudson, Bob and Carmen Farmer, Ken and Peg Christianson, John and Betty Redmond, Gordon and Fran Wright and Bob and Edna Meason.

Mrs. Skipper Rostker of Barhite chose last Friday to introduce some of the new members of the neighborhood to each other. She had a lovely luncheon that, I am sure, ruined it for the men that night, because each woman in her turn opined they were sure that their husbands wouldn't be very hungry that night.

On her guest list were the two guests of honor, Mrs. Donald Kendall and Mrs. Barclay Kamb, both of Fairpoint. The other guests invited were Mesdames Leo Majich, James Smart, Greta Casler, William Casler, Joseph Philipson, Charles Goldsworthy, Werner Bracher, M. H. Simmers, Floyd Stoller, Robert Meller, Sam L. Joseph, Ralph Riner, Gene Rode, Charles Harrison, John Kariotis and myself.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren (Terry) Dunning entertained last weekend at a dinner and bridge party for a group of their friends. At their home were Mr. and Mrs. William Salani, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Harper and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bondurand.

Mrs. Aikman Armstrong made one young man happy, namely her son Frank, by returning from a three-week trip to Bethesda where she joined her husband and daughter in a concentrated house hunt. Word has it that they have found one and will be leaving permanently on December 7 to live there.

The Joseph Philipsons had a wonderful evening last week learning the delights of the Japanese culinary art. They were entertained in the private rooms of the Kayasaku Restaurant in Los Angeles. Their host was Mr. Oizo Sugino, the great-uncle of their houseguest, Miss Hiromi Koyama. Mr. Sugino lives in Chicago now and was en route to Japan for a five-month visit. He was able to order a meal that few Americans have the opportunity to enjoy.

Panel Discussion For Retarded Children's Ass'n.

The Retarded Children's Association of the San Gabriel Valley, assisted by staff members of the County Superintendent of Schools, will present a panel discussion on November 19, 8 p.m., at the Lincoln School, 600 E. Grand Ave., San Gabriel. The topic of discussion will be "A New Look at Mental Retardation — Today's Problems in Action." Members of the panel are Dr. David H. Fils, Ph.D., head psychologist of the Los Angeles County School District; Dr. Arthur A. Attwell, Ed.D., of the Los Angeles County Schools and California State College at Los Angeles; Miss Ruth Short, M.S.W., of the Department of Mental Hygiene, and Mr. Walter L. Letters To The Editor Show Deep Feelings And Honest Concern

Dar Editor:

Well bless your dear old red-head, and don't you dare say you might not have the paper for long, or I will give up. Let's get old Stufback on the city council, the school board, and between the two of you people would really know what is going on in this town, and world, and there would not be any hush-hush and being an old house-mouse I would know that I could read your paper if I was in doubt on any issue and know that it was the truth I was reading. I will now check all your ads and if it is advertised in your paper, I will buy in town. If not, and it is an out-of-towner that's got it, there I will buy. Only one place I don't want to patronize as yet, but will eventually because he is a real nice fellow is Sterling Ripple. So you keep a cool red-head and remember when you are threatend that those are the people that are going to have the "screaming meemies" in the next four years, and you are going to be here after they are long gone. For every Democrat - Liberal that sinks in '65 we are going to have ten switch to Republican - Conservative to survive.

—House-mouse

Dear Editor:

At the conclusion of this 1964 election year, we would like to express our appreciation for your thoughtful analysis and most valuable support of Proposition 17, the railroad anti-featherbedding act.

We are convinced that the overwhelming victory of Proposition 17, bringing California as it does the benefits of the national railroad settlements, is due in large measure to the newspapers of our state which took the time during a hectic presidential campaign to explain the purpose of the act.

Again, on behalf of our committee, our supporters — and most importantly, the people of California who are the true beneficiaries of this act — our many thanks.

—HUGH M. BURNS
—JOHN F. MCCARTHY

LETTER TO EDITOR

On Tuesday, November 10, a petition signed by 1,053 Sierra Madreans was presented to the City Council. It read as follows: "The undersigned residents and taxpayers believe that the question of whether or not a new city hall is to be constructed is one for determination by the electorate at the next municipal election. We, therefore, respectfully request that you postpone further proceedings in this respect, until the electorate can express its wishes."

The members of the Council voiced no opinion, either favoring or opposing the request. Questions have been raised, however, concerning the possibility that some signatures might have been obtained by misrepresentation of individual or general Council feelings in regard to the petition.

All those who helped circulate petitions therefore urge any signer who feels his or her name was obtained by misrepresentation, or for any reason other than the personal belief that the citizens should have the opportunity to express their wishes for or against the expenditure of money for a new city hall, to request the deletion of his or her name.

At the same time, citizens who would like to join those who wish an opportunity to vote on this issue, may do so by requesting the City to add their names to the petition at the City Hall, or sign copies available at the Sierra Madre News.

Sincerely,
—JACK V. STUMPF.

It Pays to Buy
where you Live

What You Need... WHEN You Need It

WHEN you have a prescription that needs filling...when your car acts up...when you almost forget some important gift-occasion...or when some other Emergency comes along...it's nice to be able to buy what you need...right here where you live...WHEN you need it.

In fact, most of the Emergency Needs that confront us from time to time, are not real problems at all... because local stores and service people are only minutes away, and those needs are promptly filled for us.

But... just suppose that a lot of us take the bulk of our trade... our large purchases, and our everyday buying... to cities and towns 50 or 100 or more miles away... and buy at home only when we haven't time to wait until we can go somewhere else to get it. Then, with their trade volume lower, could we expect local business to be able and ready to serve us in emergencies?

Or, some day, if we need medicine, or a spark plug, or other vital item... will we have to make a long trip to some distant city to get it?

Editorially Speaking....

Let the Initiative Stay

In the afterglow of the election, Governor Brown's campaign to change the state's initiative procedures becomes more and more transparent. The Governor charged during pre-election days that the initiative process was being abused by "special interests." He even went so far as to use one of his own special interests, the tax-paid public information services of various state agencies, to campaign against Proposition 14. He also actively opposed Proposition 16.

The people agreed with the Governor on the privately operated lottery scheme—giving it a lethal punch in the ballot box. They refuted him emphatically on Proposition 14. And that is what the initiative is for. When the people feel that their elected officials and representatives are not acting in their own best interest, they have recourse to a legislative process of their own. Mistakes have been made, of course, just as legislatures and governors have made mistakes. But they have been rectified; and the overall score is good.

One of the Governor's suggestions for altering the initiative process was to put special restrictions on the gathering of the petition signatures needed in order to get a proposition on the ballot. Actually, his restrictions would make it almost financially impossible for any but the very "special interest" groups the Governor dislikes to use the initiative; so where does that get Mr. Brown?

If any change in the initiative process is to be made, consideration should be given to a downward revision of the number of signatures required. With California's tremendous population growth, the required percentages become physically harder and harder to acquire. Obviously, it should not be made too easy to utilize the process; but to abandon it or restrict it as the Governor would like to, would badly serve the interests of the people.

Whispers About Anderson

Though Governor Edmund G. Brown has said, apropos rumors that he will be offered a Cabinet post in the next Johnson Administration, that he would prefer to remain in California, there is every reason to believe that the Governor will find such pressures put upon him that he will be unable to resist. His broad experience in law and administration eminently qualify him for a Cabinet seat whether as Attorney General, the Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, or any other which President Johnson might offer. Further, it would be the Governor's duty to accept, for, other considerations aside, a man who utterly defeated both Knowland and Nixon for the Governorship has powers of persuasion that would be welcome on the national scene.

If Brown does accept such an offer, that will, of course, mean that Lt. Gov. Glenn Malcolm Anderson will then assume the Governorship, and have nearly two years in which to establish a record—and an organization—calculated to enable him to win the Governorship in his own right.

This is a fact of political life which looms very large behind the scenes in Sacramento and in the smoke-filled rooms of Democratic headquarters up and down the state. Indeed it has loomed so large that what amounts to a whispering campaign has resulted, the burden of which is that Lt. Gov. Anderson would make such a weak governor that the strength of the Democratic Party would be imperilled throughout California.

Such a belief has all the validity of other whispering campaigns—absolutely none.

The facts of the matter are—as anyone knows who is at all familiar with the Lieutenant Governor's record—Anderson is not only a sound man but a gifted one, a person of the caliber that would make him a strong Governor.

There is no need to give a resume of his political career from its inception as Mayor of Hawthorne, California, back in 1940 when he was 27. Suffice it to say that Anderson in 1958 took the Lieutenant Governorship away from incumbent Harold J. Powers, giving him a drubbing that was fully on a par with that given Senator Knowland by Brown in the contest for the Governorship. And Powers, through his long service in the State Senate, dating back to 1932 when Anderson was still in his teens, had just about as formidable a machine as Knowland.

That was no freak victory for Anderson. He proved that in 1962 when, as incumbent, he dumped San Francisco Mayor George Christopher, who tried to wrest away the Lieutenant Governorship in one of the most heavily financed campaigns ever conducted for the office.

How Anderson, who had only a fraction of Christopher's financing, won the victory was through the tireless and hard-hitting campaign he conducted. He and his wife—an attractive and intelligent woman who, he is quick to admit, is an asset—worked as if the success of the entire Democratic Party depended on their efforts.

As to the business of his political courage in doing what he thinks is right, it should be of great significance that back in 1947, when such things were rather unpopular, he authored the law in the Legislature which resulted in the abolition of racial segregation in California schools.

In view of these facts and his overall record, there is every reason to expect he will conduct the Governorship as it ought to be conducted if Governor Brown finds it necessary—as we expect he will—to respond to a call to Washington.

LAKEWOOD, N.J., CITIZEN: "... the average government worker has had six raises ... an average increase of about 51 per cent since 1955. Private industry pay has gone up about 40 per cent. The last we heard, the government was having no trouble getting people for its rank and file jobs at the present scale. Providing them another half billion dollars a year now, merely to justify increases in some top-echelon positions where quality is needed, is an overly-high price to pay."

Hark! The words of post-election wisdom are upon us: "The electoral mechanics of democracy have spoken. The people have made their choice. Both the Republicans and Democrats gave it the traditional 'old college' try. Now, dear conservatives, in the spirit of good fellowship you must accept defeat gracefully and join the team so that we may get on with the business of developing internal harmony and the new world order."

No, this "peaches and cream" solution didn't come from a Goldwater conservative. It is a typical piece of liberal nonsense from the tale of some "jackass" who believes that the "great society" is really going to be great.

This idea of closing ranks and pushing on to higher socialistic plateaus is undoubtedly sweet music to the ears of the defeated "pro-Rumford" segment of the clergy and the impractical "pinkos" who demand that their theoretical utopias be financed by hard gotten American taxpayer dollars. But it is utter folly to twenty seven million conservative voters who registered their protest against socialism and its accompanying characteristics of immorality and subversion. Twenty seven million is a sizeable minority — 39 per cent to be exact — and these Americans, unhappy with the trend, are not going to lie down and die — or even play dead.

On the contrary, liberals take note, conservatives are bound by their convictions and adherence to principles to exhibit something akin to the spirit of John Paul Jones who, as captain of the Bonhomme Richard, engaged the larger and newer British frigate H.M.S. Serapis in naval combat. The two ships came together with a mighty crash, bow to stern, stern to bow. Within a few minutes the gun deck of the Bonhomme Richard was literally ripped apart. A few surviving gunners scrambled topside to fight with hand weapons. It was at this moment that one of the Bonhomme Richard's gunners, seeing the slaughter on deck, cried out: "Quarter! Quarter!" This was the accepted cry of defeat.

And today we find evidence of such "gunners" within the body of the Republican Party but very few within the ranks of true conservatism.

"Have you struck?" shouted the British Captain, hearing the cry.

"No," replied John Paul Jones in words that have echoed down through the corridors of history in spite of liberal attempts to remove them from the text of schoolbooks, "I have just begun to fight!"

After three and a half hours of bloody battle Captain Pearson struck his colors and the fight was over.

Two factors proved to be the margin for American victory: sheer courage and grim determination.

The conservative grass roots movement in America has both courage and determination. It is busting out all over. Its membership is growing and is composed of concerned citizens who do not want, and will not tolerate, the advent of a "Soviet America." By their vote and by their tireless efforts they will turn back the tide of "from each according to his ability — to each according to his need."

Yes, the election is over, but the fight against bureaucracy, usurpation of individual rights and freedom, Communism, one world government and FOR individual freedom has just begun.

Holiday Ball By Shakespeare Jrs.

Launching the merriment of the Christmas Season for Shakespeare Club Juniors will be the annual "Holiday Ball" on December 5, at the Los Angeles Athletic Club.

Cocktails will be served at 7:30 p.m., followed by dinner at 8:30 p.m. Bill Allen will provide the music from 9:30 p.m. to 1:30 a.m. Juniors and their husbands will be seated at tables surrounding the dance floor in a decor of gold and moss green with crystal chandeliers to enhance the mood. Table decorations will be triangular Christmas trees covered in blues, turquoise, and green foil, sitting on a Christmas ornament base. The trees are decorated in silver and gold stones, braid and sequin trim.

Mrs. Curtis E. Wyatt is in charge of the ball, being assisted by Mrs. Cecil Hicks, and Mrs. Ralph Jones. Decorations are being designed by Mrs. Rolf Fromme and Mrs. James Kelley.

Those with early reservations include Mr. and Mrs. William Hannaford, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce A. Macfarlane, Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. Smelser, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Sheney, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Hayes.

A scene of the Nativity will grace the Triangle for the Christmas season as a result of action taken by the Chamber of Commerce last week. According to Mrs. Harold Roberts, a member of the board of directors of the Chamber, the figures are life size and of exquisite beauty.

The City Council last week voted $250 towards general Christmas decorations and the cost of bringing a Santa Claus to Sierra Madre. Present plans call for the arrival of Santa on Monday, Dec. 13.

The Sierra Madre Ministerial Association will sponsor a Union Thanksgiving Service in the City Park on Thanksgiving morning, November 25, at 10 o'clock. The combined choir will be directed by Lorion W. Stilton, choir director of Trinity Presbyterian Church. The Boy Scout Troop 375 of Bethany Church, will present the colors. In case of inclement weather, the service will be held in the Congregational Church.

Figures made available after the passing of the Sierra Madre Medical Center's first anniversary last month show that nearly 17,000 visits by patients have been made since the center, at 245 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., opened its doors on October 15, 1953.

And the Rains Came. And how they came! All November records were broken during the past week when 5.28 inches of water fell, bringing the season's total to 6.35 in comparison to .57 of an inch at this time last season. Not since 1900 has there been such a rainfall at this time of year.

"This ad kills me..."

"Incredible!"

"Ridiculous!"

"Farfetched!"

"Hooley!"

To the 5 out of 10 people who didn't believe this ad...

a sporting proposition

Take a no-obligation test drive in a 1965 Ford. Maybe you just couldn't believe the ad (reprinted above) which appeared in this paper a few weeks ago. After all, many consider Rolls-Royce to be one of the world's finest cars. No claim is made that the 1965 Ford is a Rolls-Royce. But Ford does ride quieter. The world's leading acoustical experts (Bolt, Beranek and Newman, Inc.) made the tests. The U. S. Auto Club certified the results.

This year's Ford has the strongest body ever... a revolutionary new frame that "tunes out" vibrations... new ultrasoft coil-spring suspensions... and dozens of other engineering advances—all contributing to the new hushed ride. But the ride is only part of what's new.

■ New swept-back instrument panel adds five inches extra knee room. ■ Transmission tunnel is lower than in competing cars for extra foot room. ■ Trunk has more usable space than ever—holds four 2-suiters standing upright.

■ New ultra-luxurious LTD series—the like of which no other car in Ford's class offers: walnut-like paneling in instrument panel and doors... opulent vinyl-and-nylon upholstery... thick cut-pile carpeting... rear center arm rests... many other luxuries.

■ Silent-Flo ventilation (standard on 4-door hardtops) removes stale air, provides fresh air even with all windows closed. ■ Exclusive new twin-edge key works with either side up. ■ Convertible rear window of plexiglass—won't crack or discolor like plastic. And you don't have to unzip them when you put the top down.

■ Hot, but hushed, 289-cu. in. V-8 is standard equipment in XL and LTD models. ■ Smooth, thrifty all-new Big Six in other models—the most powerful standard Six offered by any car in Ford's class. ■ V-8 options to 425 hp.

■ All Ford automatic transmissions have 3 speeds, not 2 as in many competing cars. Result: you pass faster, shift smoother, save on gas. ■ Fully synchronized manual transmissions—you can even shift down to first without clashing gears.

If all this sounds like a lot for one car to offer... take a test drive. Even if you're one of the 5 out of 10 who did believe our ad... come in. See why more people are buying Fords than ever before in post-war history.

Well Represented

The Sierra Madre Kiwanians came away from their weekly luncheon meeting Tuesday, November 17, feeling revived, secure and hopeful, this feeling being due to their guest speaker, Mr. Burt Anderson, who spoke on the topic, "Plus-40."

Mr. Anderson spoke on the difficulty a person has finding a suitable position after he reaches the age of "40-plus." He also pointed out the potential a person of this age has, and the vast knowledge through experience he brings to his employer that should be taken into consideration.

It was revealed at this meeting that the local Kiwanis Club will be well represented at the dual installation ceremonies of the new Lt. Governors, Walter Hodges of the newly-formed Division 35, and Milt Collins of Division 15. President Joe Grippi and President designate, Dr. Dave

At Installation

Kirkpatrick, will be among those attending this event on November 19 at the Palms in Glendora.

This is a unique situation, having a dual installation, and it was brought about by the splitting of Division 15 and forming a new Division 35. The Kiwanians report that this means "dual fun."

Pack 390 Inducts New Cub Scouts

The most important event of the Pack 390 Cub Scout meeting Friday night will be the induction of new Cub Scouts.

All Cubs must be accompanied by one or both parents. Old and new come to the Sierra Mesa Cafeteria at 7:30 Friday night, November 20.

Character is often determined by what a man says to no.

Retired Teachers To Have Regular Meeting Nov. 23

The Pasadena - Foothill Division of the California Retired Teachers Association will meet November 23, in the Pasadena Public Library Lecture Room, 285 E. Walnut Street, at 1:30 p.m., with its president, Mrs. Frank Whetter, presiding.

Following the business meeting there will be a travelogue "A Cruise to Paradise" with J. Russell Gilman as the narrator-photographer.

Mr. Gilman has sometimes been referred to as the "Burton Holmes of Pasadena" because he brings into his lectures the skill of a professional photographer with the eye of an artist and is an experienced world-traveler, having made 18 foreign trips, five of them "around the world."

Mr. Gilman will be introduced by Mrs. Ethel Belos, program chairman.

Bethany

The congregation at Bethany Church of Sierra Madre, 93 N. Baldwin, is continuing its month-long stewardship and enlargement emphasis during November by observing on Thanksgiving Sunday the theme, "The Families of God—Witnessing." This is especially appropriate as the worldwide missionary outreach of the church will be visually portrayed on Sunday evening at the 7 o'clock service by Pastor Schaper as he shows pictures of his trip into Palestine, India and the Philippines. He will preach at the 11 a.m. worship hour on the theme mentioned above. This is the third in a series of services in which he is reporting on the world trip he and his wife, Margaret, recently completed.

The church annually focuses on the great themes of praise and thanksgiving on Thanksgiving Eve at the regular Wednesday evening service. In addition, the congregation is urged to participate in a clothing gathering drive to assist the needy of the world. This is correlated by the World Relief Commission of the National Association of Evangelicals. This church also will be participating in the Thanksgiving Day service at the Sierra Madre City Park at 10 a.m.

Gary Westover, senior high youth director, returned last week from a Youth Director's Conference at Forest Home. He will be taking his high school student executive to Lancaster for an overnight retreat for planning and prayer this coming weekend, November 27.

A cordial welcome awaits the visitor at Bethany Church. Dr. Schaper states that "the congregation of believers at Bethany seeks to reach every age group with the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ in a relevant manner for today's modern man. I would be most happy to meet you at any of our services."

Golden Text For Sunday Listed

"Soul and Body" is the subject at Christian Science services this Sunday. The Golden Text reads: "Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?" (1 Cor. 3:16).

The Lesson-Sermon concludes with these words from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "To divest thought of false trusts and material evidences in order that the spiritual facts of being may appear, — this is the great attainment by means of which we shall sweep away the false and give place to the true. Thus we may establish in truth the temple, or body, whose builder and maker is God." (P. 428).

MONEY-WISE

Three-fourths of the world is flat — it's no wonder we all feel so much at home.

Children should be seen and not hurt.

Your Inner Stability

This day is God's gift to you. Give thanks for it. Use it lovingly and wisely. Through it you may experience the Infinite Love of God in action in your life. Begin today. Devote one minute out of every hour to silently thanking God. When, "Thank You, Father" becomes an attitude, then you shall know in a very real way, "It is the Father's good pleasure to give you the Kingdom" of All Good. Such is the power of giving thanks.

You are invited to worship with us this Sunday, November 22, at either 9 or 11 a.m. in an atmosphere of love and beauty. "Giving Thanks — Its Power" is the sermon — topic of Dr. Ethel Barnhart, minister.

There are classes for all of your young people from kindergarten through 25 years of age at 9 a.m.

Harvest Festival To Be Observed

The Festival of Harvest will be observed in the 10:30 Sunday morning worship service at Faith Lutheran Church, 845 Hastings Ranch Drive. In his comment on this festival the Rev. Armin Hesse states:

"In farm communities at the turn of the century the Festival of Harvest was generally observed in the fall of the year. However, when in our nation prominence was shifted from an agricultural to an industrial economy, this festival became less frequently observed in the cities. Has the result been that we and our children in metropolitan areas are less mindful of the source and blessing of food?"

"In our Prayer Sunday service last May 3, we conducted the rite of the Dedication of the Soil and Seed, invoking the Lord's benediction upon the farms and ranches of our nation. This Festival of Harvest is, therefore, a follow-up, an occasion of special gratitude for food and forest, food and fruit."

For his pulpit message, the pastor has chosen the theme "God Made It Grow," which will center on 1 Corinthians 3:3-8. The Senior Choir will sing "Ye Watchers and Ye Holy Ones" (Coeln). After a three month absence, occasioned by eye surgery, Mr. Kenneth Euker will return to his position as organist.

The Sunday School Staff is scheduled to meet next Tuesday evening at 7:30. The National Thanksgiving Day service will be conducted in the church sanctuary at 9 a.m. on Thursday, November 26.

FLOURNOY REPORT

by Assemblyman
Houston I. Flournoy
49TH ASSEMBLY DISTRICT

Year by year costs of the California Water Plan seem to increase as new plans are tacked on by Governor Brown's director of the Department of Water Resources, William Warne. While the people of California thought they were approving a $1.75 billion bond authorization to bring water to Southern California, the projected bond outlay has already reached over $2 billion and is approaching the $2.25 billion mark.

The hole in the fiscal dike was first discovered at the last session of the legislature when Warne's department proposed to use the bonding authority of another act, the Central Valley Project Bond Act, to raise $327 million for power production facilities at the Oroville-Thermalito complex. What Warne sought to do, in effect, was to expand the total available funds for the project by $327 million.

Now, the department is proposing to issue another $140 million of these same type bonds to support construction of two nuclear power plants to pump water over the Tehachapi Mountains.

With this proposal, Mr. Warne is anxious to rush the state into nuclear power production. He wants to start construction in 1966, although an independent study conducted by the Fluor Corporation for the Water Department indicated that no additional project costs would be incurred if construction were delayed; that there would be no loss to the state in using private utilities for now and delaying its entry into the nuclear field until 1982.

It would seem to me that the most important factor now is to transport water to the Southland at the lowest possible cost, not to insure that the state gets into nuclear power generation. Since it is the water users who pay, the state ought not to rush into such an area of complex and rapidly developing technology unless reductions in cost are guaranteed.

Unfortunately, Mr. Warne's proposal of nuclear power production may not be the last additional money he will seek. As there is no dollar ceiling on the amount of revenue bonds which may be issued under the Central Valley Project Act, issuance of these bonds for revenue producing projects could go on indefinitely, and the available capital for the California Water Project could balloon to fantastic heights.

Duckworth In Europe

James A. Duckworth, gunner's mate third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy O. Duckworth of 270 Sierra Madre Blvd., is visiting ports in the European area following participation in the largest amphibious combat training exercise in the Atlantic since World War II. He is serving aboard the attack transport ship USS Sandoval.

The operation called "Steel Pike," featured U.S. and Spanish Marines landing from landing craft and helicopters of a combined U.S.-Spanish Fleet of 94 vessels which included ships of the United States Military Sea Transport Service and chartered ships of the U.S. Merchant Fleet.

Good TurnBoy Scout leaders throughout the Los Angeles area are distributing paper clothing bags to their scouts in preparation for the 14th annual "Good Turn Day" which is set for Saturday, December 5, according to Tennessee Ernie Ford.Ford, who is chairman of the Citizens Committee for Good Turn Day, said the event is expected to produce 400,000 pounds of repairable clothing which will give employment to approximately 1500 handicapped workers in four agencies.Scouts from the Los Angeles Area Council, San Fernando Valley Council, Verdugo Hills Council, San Gabriel Valley Council and the Crescent Bay Council, will distribute the bags to homes during the last two weeks of November. The occupants will be asked to place repairable clothing and household articles in the bags, which the scouts will pick up on Good Turn Day.A folio of pencil sketches depicting wild life of the Southern California mountain backcountry, is being made up by young Edward La Lone. Already La Lone has completed three drawings of deer and mountain lions, all of the animals in natural action poses. Proud exhibitor of the work is Fred La Lone, Edward's older brother, who is very familiar with the state's wildlife, having trapped, fished and hunted throughout the mountain and forest country.Household articles," Ford explained, "should be small, repairable items such as clocks, toasters, hair dryers, irons and the like. There are many handicapped persons who have real talent for repairing such things, and it sure helps to give them work to do."Scouts will pick up the bags December 5, and will take them to their local collection points where they will be weighed and distributed equally (by weight) to the participating agencies.

heavy rainfall here asked city aid in combatting the Census To Start This WeekPlans for taking the 1964 census of agriculture in Los Angeles County were announced by Kathleen O'Shaughnessy, Jean Dug-way, and Myre Linthacum, newly appointed census crew leaders for the county.

The job will be done in three stages, the crew leaders said. First will come recruitment and training of enumerators to count all farms in the county. About one enumerator for each 150 farms will be needed.Shortly after November 19, the Bureau of the Census, an agency of the U.S. Department of Commerce, will start the second stage by mailing agricultural census questionnaires to all rural boxholders in the county.
This will give farm and ranch operators, who are required by law to fill out the forms, a period of time to consult their records and fill in answers to the questions.In the final stage, enumerators will visit each farm in the county to collect the questionnaires. At the time of this visit, the enumerators will help farmers complete answers to any questions the farmers may have had difficulty with. Enumerator visits are scheduled to begin in this county on November 23. Enumerators will take about three weeks to complete their work, the crew leaders estimate.The census of agriculture is taken every five years in the years ending in "4" and "9" to gather up-to-date information on the nation's agricultural resources and production. Such information is vital in making decisions affecting many segments of the U.S. economy.
Data gathered include the number and size of farms, acreage and harvest of crops, livestock inventory, information on farm equipment and facilities, farm products sold, and use of fertilizers, insecticides, and herbicides.Serving Seafoods

Property Owners Need Help

Bonelli Advocates Pushing Measures For Tax Relief

Supervisor Frank G. Bonelli today said he strongly advocates Los Angeles County concentrating on passage of legislative measures earmarked to provide property tax relief when the 1965 State Legislative Session convenes on January 4.

"Passage of our entire County legislative program, all of which is most important, should not detract from the enabling legislation pledged to reducing the county tax rate by some 59 cents per $100 of assessed valuation through procurement of a 1/2 cent county sales tax provision," Bonelli emphasized.

He continued: "Another measure of monetary significance to the county is the proposed implementation of an amendment providing subvention of an aviation fuel users' tax directly to counties wherein the gas sales originate."

"Long overdue is the revision of the antiquated Mayo-Breed Formula via amendment, changing the subvention of gas tax monies by the state from the 55 per cent south - 45 per cent north present formula to a 60-40 basis. This would increase the Southern California counties share by an added 5 per cent and would be more realistically related to the actual 63 per cent or more paid to and collected by the state from Los Angeles County and other counties of Southern California."

"Legislation is also needed pursuing state implementation of a 2 per cent county uniform property tax on fair market value of all real and improved property, resulting in the freezing of the ad valorem tax base and providing the overburdened county taxpayer the protection and conformity required and thus assuring the necessary safeguard."

Successful Plan On November 18

Plans were successful for an all out strike against calories for Shakespear Club Juniors on November 18. A bus left Stratford House at 11 o'clock, taking Juniors to the Farmers Market, 3rd and Fairfax in Los Angeles, for a luncheon of their own choosing — guaranteed to please any gourmet.

Fringe benefits included plenty of time to browse in the many and varied gift shops and specialty shops around the market. The bus returned at 2 o'clock, according to Mrs. Delford McGee luncheon chairman. Assisting her were Mrs. Theodore Fielding, Mrs. Robert E. Simon, and Mrs. Alfred S. Wach.

Those attending included Mrs. Jerry W. Asher Jr., Mrs. Ronald A. Horst, Mrs. Donald Dragas, Mrs. Stephen H. Stroppe, Mrs. Kenneth Griffin, Mrs. Robert Matthews, Mrs. Rolf Fromme, Mrs. Dan L. Cain, and Mrs. Robert Radloff.

Christmas Seal Program Opens 58th Annual Year

With the mailing of appeal letters to 1,400,000 families in Los Angeles County, the 58th annual Christmas Seal campaign of the Tuberculosis and Health Association officially opens this week.

Mrs. Carlos Sacasa, Arcadia - Monrovia - Alhambra - San Gabriel area chairman of the 1964 Christmas Seal campaign, said this year's campaign goal has been set at $875,000 and funds are urgently needed to support the year-round programs of the pioneer voluntary health agency in tuberculosis control and respiratory diseases.

Mrs. Sacasa added the traditional Christmas Seal campaign, conducted entirely by mail, is the only source of income for the agency. She urged families in Los Angeles County to respond quickly and generously to the campaign.

"More than 1,500 new cases of TB have been reported in our county thus far in 1964," Mrs. Sacasa said. "And it is apparent much remains to be done in the fight against TB. Health officials hope to achieve by the year 1970 that point in TB control when the disease no longer represents a public health menace to our community."

"In addition, progress is being made in research, professional and public education and community service programs in all respiratory diseases. These illnesses represent the fourth leading cause of death in the United States and are first among causes of industrial absenteeism."

Mrs. Sacasa said the campaign is now underway and will continue through the holidays. She added residents of her area have been most generous in past years in supporting Christmas Seals and voiced confidence of continued support.

VENT

for the "other side" by "VAN DYKE"

When you talked about my being red behind my facial foliage last week, Carrot Top, I guess you meant the passage of Proposition 13 — wait until we see the color of your visage when it will be pronounced illegal and unconstitutional . . . as we said right along.

Already you can hear the apologists say: "The Federal Government shouldn't withhold the money for Urban Renewal (as we said they would), because California needs the jobs," and "They can't declare discrimination illegal if the majority (almost two to one) voted for it!" Well, all you of the majority, who put your heads in the sand so you couldn't see what's going on and refused to cope with an urgent problem, you'll find out pretty soon that a "majority" cannot put something illegal (according to the Constitution of our country) into law.

It means working for the welfare of mankind as well as for the welfare of our people — for peace on earth as well as a strong defense against aggressors — for humanity and charitable assistance where needed as well as trying to balance the budget and eliminate waste and graft — for the rights of man and each American of whatever color, race or religion as well as limiting the power and influence of organizations of such individuals which use illegal force or violence or interpret their rights as going beyond our constitutional version of freedom — for a united community of nations as well as protection against national subversion and treason — for a future world disarmament as well as prevention of any dangerous disadvantages along the path to such a goal.

It is the place of the ultra-rightists within the party to watch that the "as well as" side gets the same chance and attention! I hope we learned that the party should not represent only ONE viewpoint but have many facets — if we did, this election was beneficial and may lead to a victory in 1968.

secretaries. One was explaining the new recently purchased office machine that had been installed in her office. . . .

I know, said the other, it does the work of three men, but I just kinda believe I would rather have the men . . . a vote in our favor.

Granddaughter and grandmother were discussing the cancellation of a much planned-for wedding, for which the sweet young thing made the following remark . . . "It looks like the wedding is off, my boy friend has cold feet."

Whereupon grandmother made the following retort . . . "Shame on you, young lady. In my day we didn't find out about those things until after we were married." . . . these are different days, grandmother.

The all-consuming issue in America today is whether we shall remain a country where the individual is free from government domination and control, or whether we shall go back into the darkness and drudgery of a government-operated economy.

"How many weeks vacation do you get?" one stenographer asked another. "Well, I really get four weeks; I take two weeks and when I return my boss takes two." . . . sounds like a good deal, I must take two weeks next year and see how it works out.

In closing the column for this week, let me remind you that Nature gave men two ends . . . one to sit on and one to think with. Ever since then, man's success or failure has depended on the one he used the most . . . I'm sure I have reminded you of this before, so will see you around, I hope, I hope, I hope.
